
Values are mean ± SEM across 10 dataset means (5 RF seeds each). Columns are RF gene panels: the top genes by impurity importance, or every gene above an importance cutoff; the number under each is the mean panel size. Plain RF (300 trees) on 2000 cells × 2000 genes; an even split of importance is 0.0005 per gene.